About NCSBN

Empowering and supporting nursing regulators across the world in their mandate to protect the public, NCSBN is an independent, not-for-profit organization. As a global leader in regulatory excellence, NCSBN champions regulatory solutions to borderless health care delivery, agile regulatory systems and nurses practicing to the full scope of their education, experience and expertise. A world leader in test development and administration, NCSBN's NCLEX® Exams are internationally recognized as the preeminent nursing examinations.

NCSBN's membership is comprised of the nursing regulatory bodies (NRBs) in the 50 states, the District of Columbia and four U.S. territories. There are five exam user members and 25 associate members that are either NRBs or empowered regulatory authorities from other countries or territories.

The NCSBN Mission

NCSBN empowers and supports nursing regulators in their mandate to protect the public.

The NCSBN Vision

Leading regulatory excellence worldwide.

The NCSBN Values

Our values arise out of our purpose as an organization. They help us define our culture and beliefs and guide our actions as we face challenges and opportunities.

Collaboration

Forging solutions through respect, diversity, inclusion, and collective strength of all stakeholders.

Excellence

Striving to be and do our best in rapidly changing environments.

Innovation

Embracing change as an opportunity to better organize endeavors for all and turn new ideas into action.

Integrity

Doing the right thing for the right reasons through honest, open and ethical dialogue.

Transparency

Demonstrating and expecting openness, clear communication, and equity and accountability of processes and outcomes.

Strategic Action Toward Quantum Change

Oct. 1, 2021 - Sept. 30, 2022

Leading Nursing Organizations Issue Policy Brief Regarding Nurses Spreading Misinformation about COVID-19

NCSBN and seven other leading nursing organizations* issued a policy brief to address the misinformation being disseminated about COVID-19 by nurses. The brief notes that when nurses identify themselves by their profession, they are professionally accountable for the information they provide to the public.

It is an expectation of the U.S. boards of nursing, the profession, and the public that nurses uphold the truth, the principles of the American Nurses Association Code of Ethics for Nurses and highest scientific standards when disseminating information about COVID-19 or any other health-related condition or situation.

The brief concludes by stating, “Nurses are urged to recognize that dissemination of misinformation not only jeopardizes the health and well-being of the public but may place their license and career in jeopardy as well.” The brief in its entirety may be read here.

*Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN), American Nurses Association (ANA), American Organization for Nursing Leadership (AONL), National League for Nursing (NLN), NLN Commission for Nursing Education Accreditation (CNEA), National Student Nurses' Association (NSNA) and Organization for Associate Degree Nursing (OADN)

There are 39 jurisdictions that allow registered nurses (RNs) and licensed practical/vocational nurses (LPN/VNs), whose primary state of residence is in an NLC state, to hold one multistate license, with the authority to practice in person or via telehealth, in both their home state and other NLC states.

Nov. 15, 2021: New Jersey completed the process of implementing the NLC

Dec. 6, 2021: US Virgin Islands Becomes Second US Territory to Enact NLC

Gov. Albert Bryan Jr. signed the NLC into law making the U.S Virgin Islands the second territory and the 39th jurisdiction to enact the NLC.

Virgin Islands Board of Nurse Licensure Chairperson Tancia Penn, MSN, RN, commented, "Understanding the complexities and challenges with retaining nurses in the Virgin Islands, we believe that this new and exciting opportunity will positively impact our community, our nursing practice and the health care institutions."

Feb. 1, 2022: Vermont implemented the NLC

Shiela Boni, MSN, RN, executive officer, Vermont State Board of Nursing, stated, "We are thrilled to partner with the other compact states in our shared mission to protect public safety while providing mobility to Vermont nurses, as well as nurses across the nation, who are seeking the lifestyle and collaborative practice environment that Vermont offers."

Through the APRN Compact, APRNs will have the ability to travel from state-to-state to deliver care or provide telehealth services across state borders in other compact states. This will increase patient access to high-quality care with the assurance that their practitioner has met rigorous uniform standards no matter where that care is provided. When implemented, the compact will allow an APRN to hold one multistate license with a privilege to practice in other compact states.

March 24, 2022: Gov. Spencer Cox signed the APRN Compact into law in the state of Utah

Bill sponsor Sen. Curtis Bramble, commented, "It was my privilege to support APRNs in Utah and the important role they play in providing excellent care to our community. The passage of SB151 is significant because it will allow nurses from other states to practice in Utah without a lot of unnecessary bureaucratic red tape. We need these highly qualified health care professionals to live and work in Utah in order to address our growing population's needs. This bill balances the urgent need for more health care workers while upholding high standards for training and safety."

Utah is the third jurisdiction to have enacted the APRN Compact. North Dakota and Delaware enacted the compact in 2021. The APRN Compact will be implemented when seven states have enacted the legislation.

In Spring 2022, 32 scholars from around the world gathered in Washington, D.C. for the inaugural ICRS Advanced Leadership Institute.

NCSBN International Center for Regulatory Scholarship (ICRS) Graduated First Class

ICRS is an educational initiative that offers online and blended courses designed to cultivate and elevate nursing leaders and policymakers around the world. ICRS's premier offering is the ICRS certificate program, which is a pioneering, competency-based course of study. This program is designed to enrich and inspire nursing regulators, health policy leaders and other professionals who are entrusted with patient safety. The inaugural ICRS Advanced Leadership Institute was held April 6-7, 2022, in Washington, D.C. and graduated 32 scholars from around the world.

NCSBN Chief Officer, Nursing Regulation, Maryann Alexander, PhD, RN, FAAN, notes, "We want to see those who receive this certificate go on to become the future leaders of state, national and international regulatory bodies."

ICRS certificate graduate, Caroline Muchina, LLB, CS, AKIB, corporation secretary and manager of legal services at the Nursing Council of Kenya, remarked, "I embraced the opportunity to participate in the only program of its kind dedicated to the education of health care regulators. Through the guidance of my ICRS instructors and peers, I learned to look at issues more objectively and from an informed and global perspective."

Regulatory Exam - Practical Nurse (REx-PN®) Launched

Developed by NCSBN for the British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM) and the College of Nurses of Ontario (CNO) REx-PN launched in January 2022 and is now used as an entry-to-practice exam for those applying to become licensed practical nurses in British Columbia and registered practical nurses in Ontario.

Microsoft Story about how NCSBN Uses Microsoft Cloud and Database Technology to Increase Nursing Mobility Nationwide Published

NCSBN was featured in this Microsoft story about migrating our applications and databases to their Azure cloud platform. This move helps nurses, health care organizations and regulators share the latest information, enable cross-border collaboration, and work toward better health care for all.

The Next Generation NCLEX \(NGN\) Computer Adaptive Testing \(CAT\) Video Debuts

Designed to explain how CAT works to nursing educators, nursing students, policymakers and the general public, the video describes why CAT has been used for NCLEX and will continue to be used for NGN. The video also covers pass/fail exam rules and item selection.

New NGN Website Unveiled

Gathered in one convenient online location, the new website offers resources that will guide candidates through the process, from applying to a nursing regulatory body, registering for the exam, scheduling, and familiarizing themselves with how the test is administered and the type of questions they will experience.

California Board of Registered Nursing (CBRN) Joins Nursys® Electronic License Verification

On March 10, 2022, CBRN joined 54 other jurisdictions across the country in providing electronic license verification for registered nurses (RNs). RNs looking to obtain a license by endorsement to practice in another state can now use Nursys for verification of their current and past licenses in participating jurisdictions.

Nursys is the only national database for licensure verification of RNs, licensed practical/vocational nurses (LPN/VNs) and advanced practice registered nurses (APRNs). Nursys is live and dynamic, and all updates to the system are pushed directly from participating boards of nursing databases through frequent, secured data updates.

The electronic nurse license verification for endorsement component of Nursys is secure and simple to use. It is accessible anytime from anywhere, 24-hours a day, seven days a week at nursys.com. The verification allows nurses to complete this process in the most efficient way possible.

REGULATION

Journal of Nursing Regulation (JNR) 2022 Environmental Scan Published

Every year JNR produces a comprehensive overview of the health care landscape with a specific focus on nursing and regulation. The 2022 Environmental Scan, published as a special free supplement to JNR's January edition, tells the story of "resiliency, achievement and public protection."

This edition looked at the continuing influence of COVID-19 on the nursing workforce, nursing education, health care delivery and legislation and policy while also examining recent events and emerging trends.

Publications and Web Resources

NCSBN produces a wide variety of publications including books, white papers, brochures and research briefs that focus on the NCLEX-RN® and NCLEX-PN® Examinations, as well as health care issues and activities, in addition to conducting its own research studies by addressing some of today's most important nursing practice issues. These publications present in-depth information and best practice techniques to enhance perspective and contribute to the nursing knowledge base. These publications are available for download free of charge from the NCSBN website.
