

REGULATORY SCHOLARS: An Exciting Opportunity for Graduate Nursing Students

NCSBN's Regulatory Scholars Program advances the field of nursing regulation by building regulatory experts and researchers, providing high-level evidence for nursing regulatory and policy decision-making, and encouraging scholarly dialogue and publications.

The program offers the following opportunities:

SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE

Who: DNP or PhD students, or faculty

When to Apply: Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Consists of an eight-week, full-time, paid internship that will provide the scholar with valuable nursing regulatory experience related to education, practice, licensure, policy and/or discipline depending on the scholar's primary area of interest and NCSBN's organizational objectives. The scholar will work under the close guidance of the NCSBN director of Nursing Education and will work with specific staff based on their areas of interest. The position timeline will accommodate the scholar's academic schedule.

A $7,000 stipend will be provided to the scholar, as well as reimbursement for travel expenses. The position will begin in the summer, or as negotiated.

UNPAID GRADUATE INTERNSHIP

Who: Masters or DNP students

When to Apply: Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Unpaid practical experience in nursing regulation or policy will be offered to a limited number of nursing graduate students who want to gain nursing regulatory/policy experience to satisfy the clinical experience component of their graduate nursing program. The student will work with a variety of NCSBN departments and may choose to work intensely in one area. The student will contribute to the work of NCSBN while obtaining practical experience in nursing regulation.

The duration of the practical experience will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis, though it generally will be no longer than three months.
