EVERY MOMENT
MATTERS

Realizing Lasting Impact

Be in the Moment

One NCSBN. One Mission.
Our Journey Continues.

Elaine Ellibee, RN

Gertrude "Trudy" Malone, RN

Mildred Schmidt, EdD, RN

Helen "Pat" Keefe, RN

Joyce Schowalter, MEd, RN

Sharon Weisenbeck, MS, RN

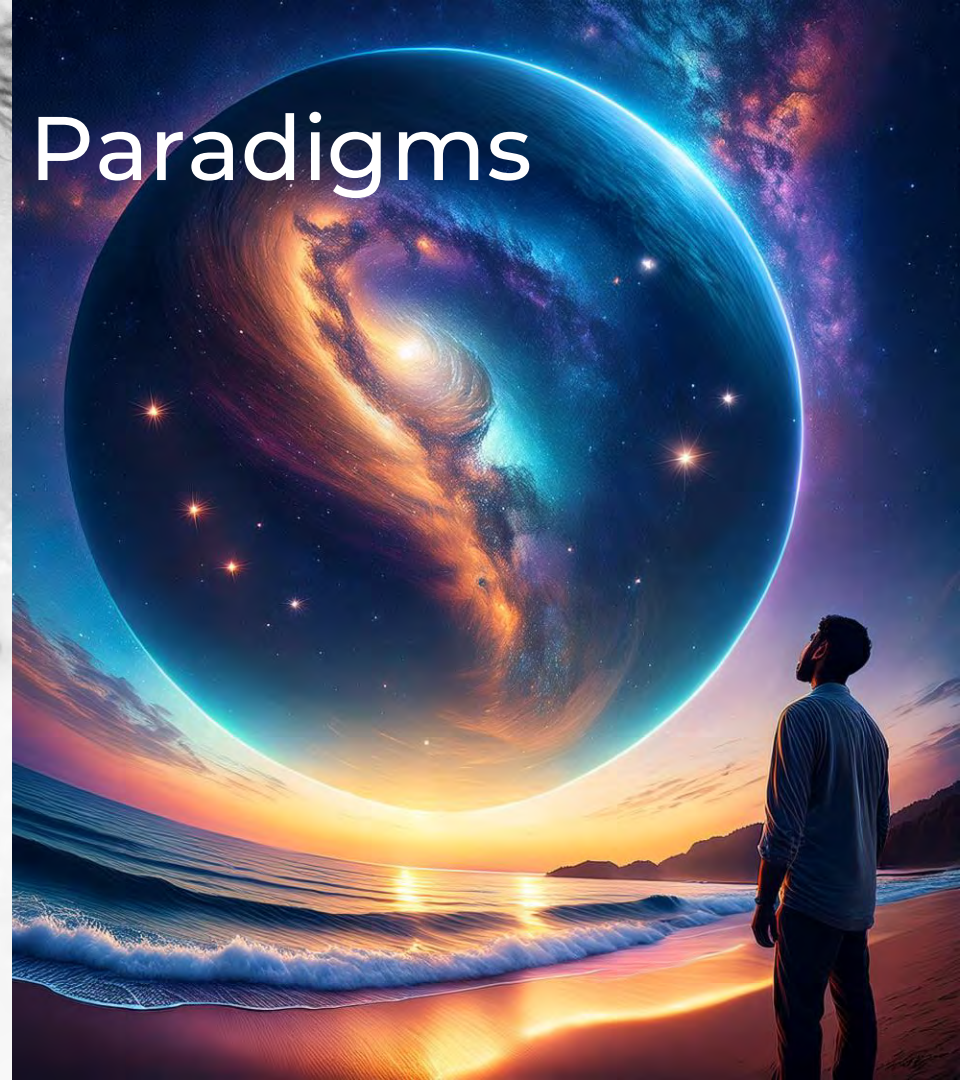

“I have a continuing pulsating belief in the protection of the public – as it relates to nursing – that is the sole purpose for the existence of a board of nursing.

May we have created the council truly for just that.”

-Trudy Malone

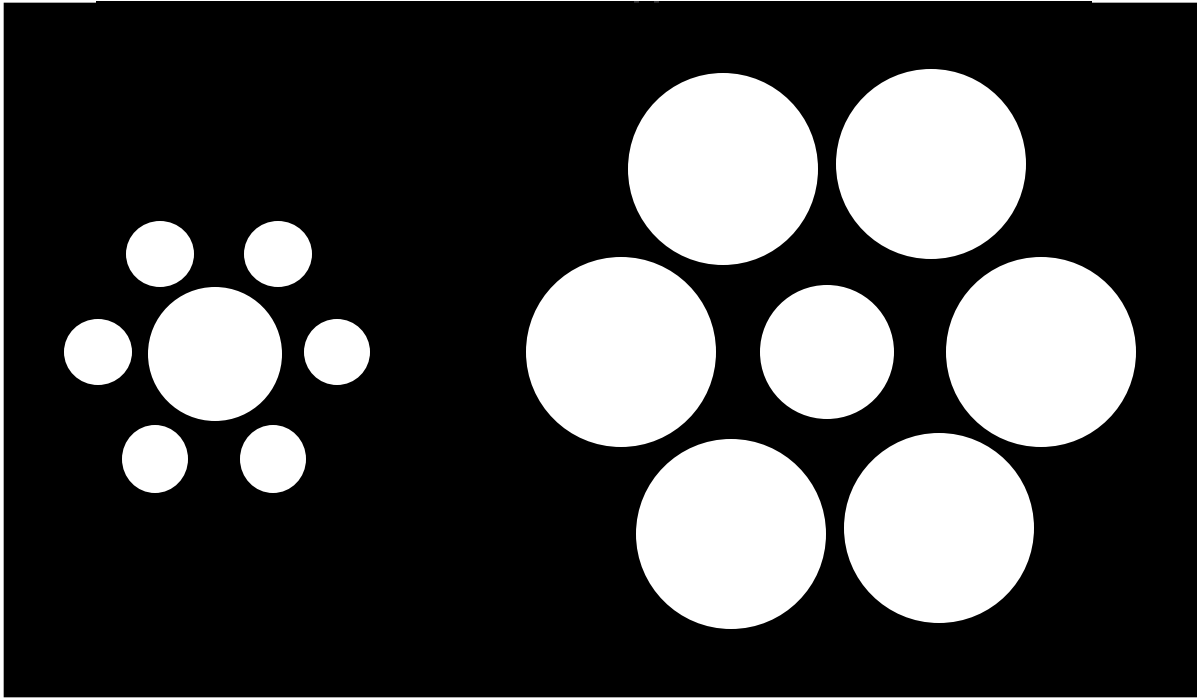

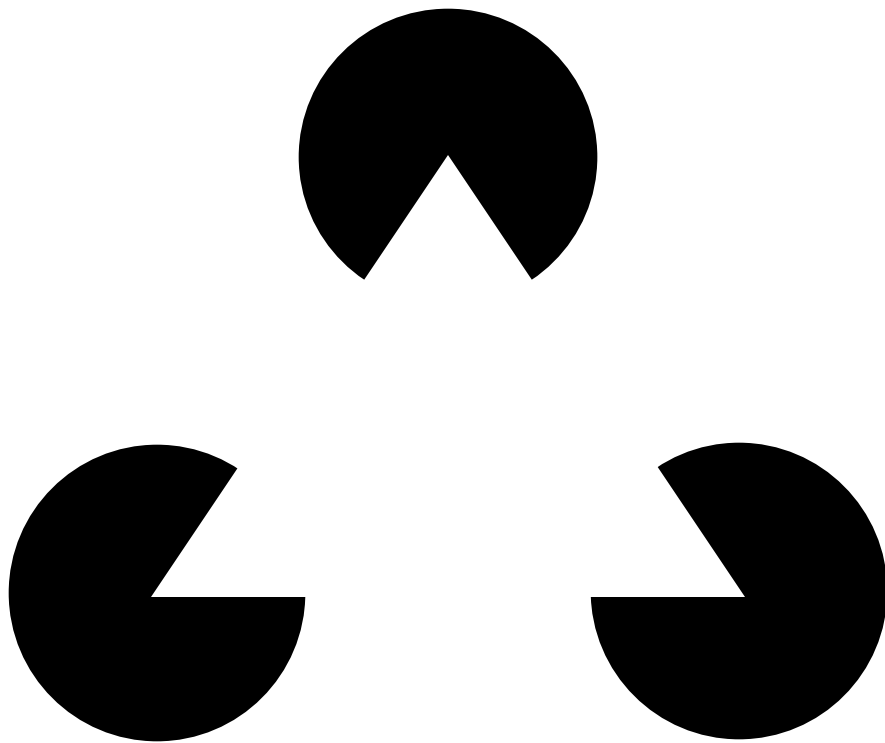

Dueling Paradigms

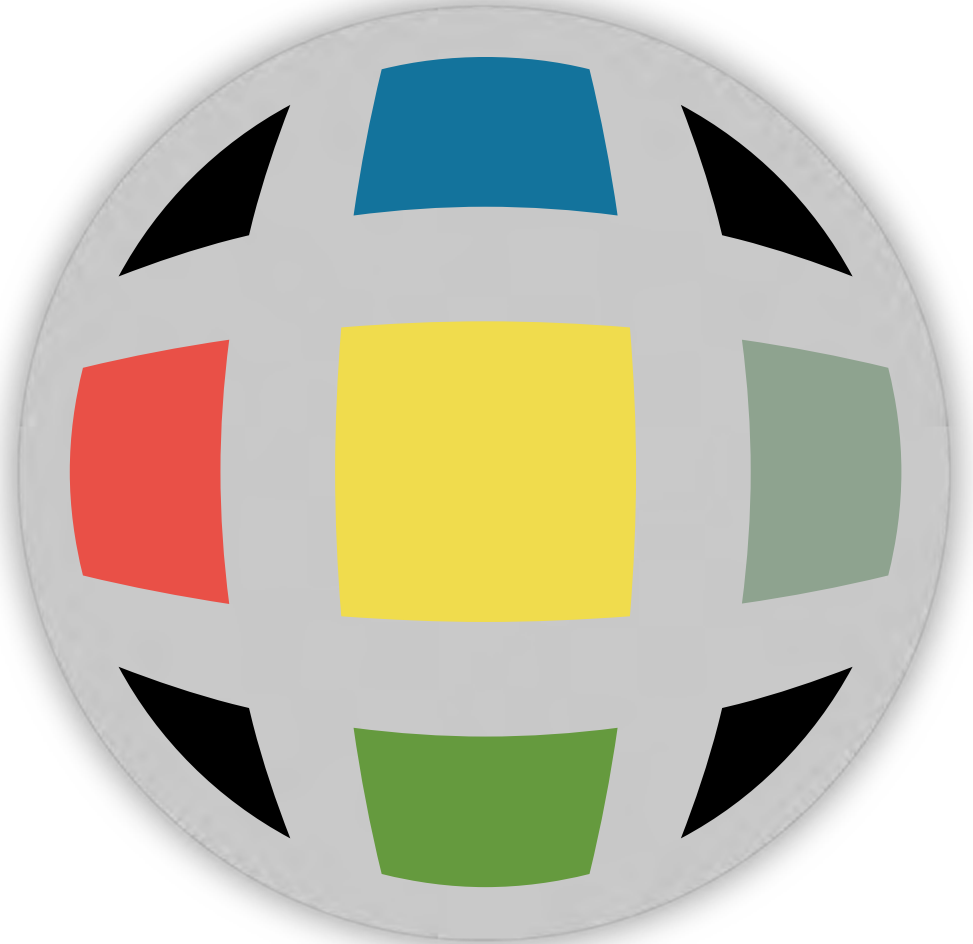

One NCSBN

At our core is the mission, vision and values that unite us.

One NCSBN

We all have different roles, diverse skillsets and share our vast knowledge and experiences.

Yet we are guided by one culture.

One Culture

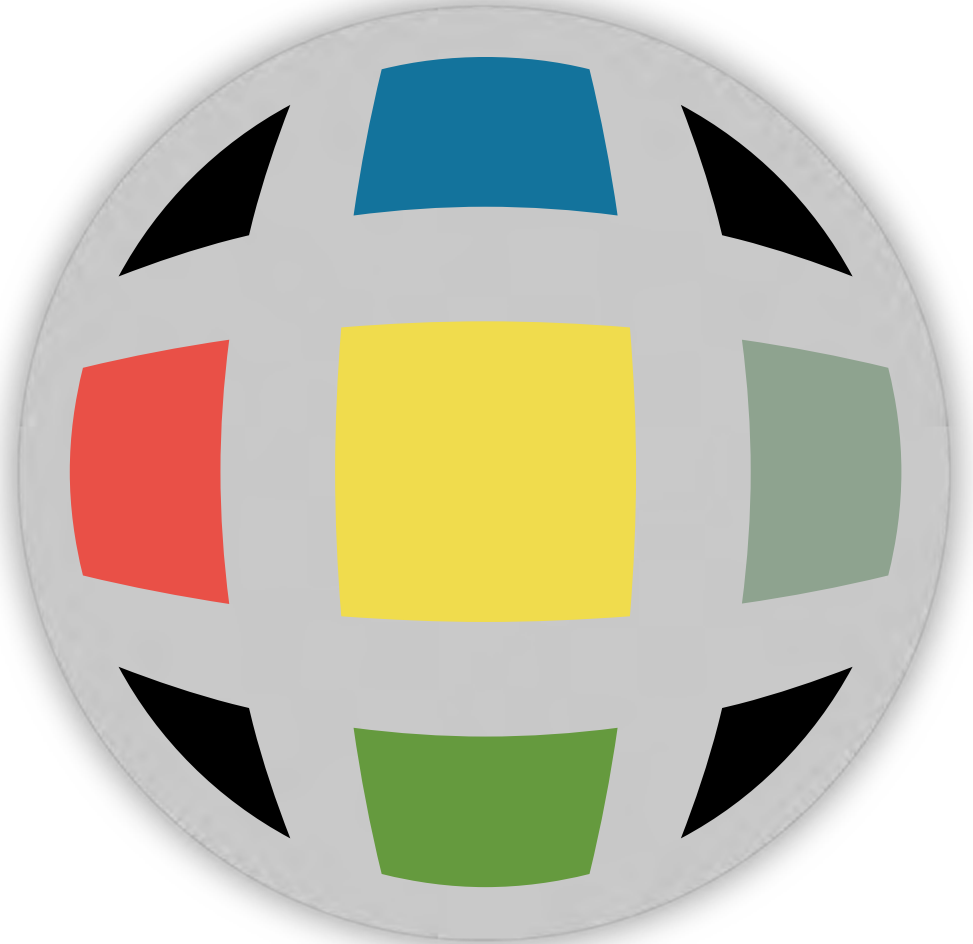

NCSBN culture is best realized when we strive for the eight values in our culture palette. Mixing these values together, we paint a clear picture of how to best present ourselves, treat each other, and approach our work.

One NCSBN

While our products and programs help us lead regulatory excellence, it's our people that define us.

We are NCSBN.

The Moments of Nursing

The importance of these moments will never change...

it's why we do what we do!

The importance of these
moments will never change...

but everything else will.

That means asking tough questions about how we regulate today.

We are the guard rails and the barriers.
But where are there guard rails that have become just simple barriers?
